

A new frame is added to the top of the Stack

1

This is now the top most "Current Instruction"

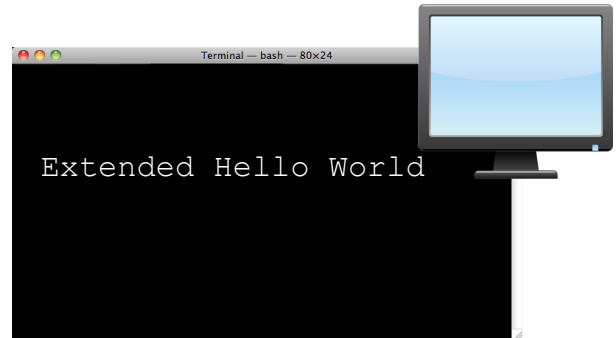

2 The Program's progress remains on the Stack

3

The Computer runs the first instruction in the Write Procedure

4

The Computer will continue to run the Instructions in the Write Procedure until they complete. When they finish the output will have appeared in the Console.